3. TWIN FARMS

Barnard, Vermont

The Maple room bath in the Farmhouse at Copper Hill at Twin Farms

Twin Farms

Set on 300 acres of wildflower meadows and rolling hills in central Vermont, this intimate country retreat can feel like a bucolic second home — albeit one with a private art collection, a huge variety of outdoor activities and no one under age 16. Guests are free to explore the grounds independently or with a guide, read a book next to the fire at the Copper Hill Library or borrow one of the hotel's BMWs for an excursion. The farm-to-table culinary program is also customized: Guests forgo menus and entrust the chef to deliver each course based on their stated preferences.
